

During the Second World War more than 200,000 Australians enlisted in the Royal Australian Air Force. They served in theatres of war around the world, from Western Europe and the Mediterranean to South East Asia, northern Australia and the South West Pacific.

anzacportal.dva.gov.au

PEACE!

