

During the Second World War men and women of the Royal Australian Navy served in Australia and on seas and oceans around the world. Australian vessels took part in many of the war's most significant naval campaigns.

anzacportal.dva.gov.au

PEACE!

